Dear Harold,

Vidal's article on Hunt (sent under separate cover) quite interesting.

"Executive Action", while not a bad movie, is critically inept although popular and thus constructive on a mass level. Lifton listed in the credits.

McCord is suing on "The Realist" article. Let as a public figure he would have to prove it was knowingly false -----.

I first came across the Hoover memo via Thornton. Rather vital.

Oglesby has a fine mind but a confused, unstable personality.

Skolnick, like any "madman," cannot be "refuted".

I do not at this time any Watergate book will be successful. Much data yet too much is below the surface.

Yes, I would appreciate a copy of this data.
